UNCLE SAM NEEDS THE MONEY.

Is Offering Two New Series of U. S. Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness.

In order to meet the requirements of the Government, pending the deferred installments upon the Victory Liberty Loan and deferred installments of income and profits taxes, Secretary of the Treasury Glass has offered through the Federal Reserve Banks, two series of U. S. Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness.

Series T-4 is payable September 15, 1915, and series T-5 on December 15. The offering of these securities evidences the need of the government for further funds to fulfill the financial obligations growing out of the world war, and should be an incentive to all War Savings societies to do their utmost to increase the sales of War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps during the summer.

By purchasing these small securities, the individual not only aids his government, but serves his own interest by making the best investment in the world and making a start in saving that will lead to just the success that the investor's sticking to it justifies.

Methodist Episcopal Church

W. H. Layton, Pastor.

Sunday school 9:45; sermons 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Morning theme, The Christian Life; evening subject, Out of Plumb. Epworth League 6:45. Thanksgiving services Thursday 10 a. m. A cordial invitation to the public.

Say, Did You Know

That a lot of church people, so called, have an attack of Morbus Sabbaticus almost every Sunday, and—

That the Bible and the Sabbath are the pillars in the temple of our republic by which it stands or falls, and—

That Sunday visiting and feasting may pamper the flesh but that it is mighty hard on the spirit life, and—

That if the dead material in the church could be set on fire for God there would be a tremendous conflagration, and—

That if I wanted to lessen the enthusiasm of my church for real evangelism I would stay away from the church, and—

That if I wanted to keep my own spiritual life in a below zero condition I would never attend church but continually find fault with it, and—

That if I wanted to be counted among those who have no concern for the salvation of the unsaved in the community I would never go to church, and—

That if I wanted to let my children know that I had little concern for their conversion I would always find some excuse for not going to church, and—

That when a member of the church never attends church and never has a good word to say for the church, that even the sinner knows that said church member needs to go the mourner's bench, and—

That if I wanted to make my church a cold, barren, unspiritual, unsocial place, destitute of joy and love and fellowship, I would stay away from the church.

Here and There

According to the forty-five year ago column in the Bulletin, Linneus at that time was afflicted with a "Amassagasean" society.

There seems to be a scarcity of home production of babies at Hale. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Ira Duckworth adopted a girl baby from a hospital at Kansas City and last week Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fink did the same thing.

James A. Moore, of the Moore bank, Brookfield, and a pioneer citizen of the county died at his home in Brookfield Saturday after a long illness at the age of 84 years. The widow and three children, Mrs. Mary Powers, Joseph W. Moore and Mrs. Chas. H. Jones, survive.

Taxes Now Due

The tax-books for Jefferson township are now in my hands for collections. The school district is short of funds and it would be appreciated by the board and be a great help to the school for as many as possible to pay their taxes at once that the teachers may be paid promptly. Office at the Thorne furniture store.
